IS COMMUNISM A PROBLEM AROUND HAMLIN?

Too many of us, as citizens of small cities and rural areas console ourselves that we are not to be concerned with the threat of Communism. It is something for the legislators and others to wrestle with. But that is not true. Communism is everybody's threat—it even threatens our very livelihood right here in the Hamlin community. It waves a dangerous hand over the American way in our everyday lives.

Communism has produced a vast literature. That literature has now been notably enriched with J. Edgar Hoover's newly published "Masters of Deceit."

Hoover's book carries the sub-title "The Story of Communism in America and How to Fight It." No man is more familiar with that story. He was made director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation during the Coolidge administration, has been retained in office by every president since, and has done an outstanding job in keeping the bureau free of political influence, inefficiency and corruption. And, in recent years, Hoover and the bureau have become more and more involved with the Communist conspiracy.

Purpose of "Masters of Deceit" is intensely practical. It is to explain the facts about Communism—what it is, how it works, what its aims are, the dangers it poses, and what loyal Americans must do to protect their freedom. Hoover provides a short account of Communism's beginnings, and goes on to explain who American Communists and why they adopt the ideology. He shows how the party is organized, and deals with its subtle and devious strategy and tactics. Espionage and sabotage—weapons with which trained Communists are extraordinarily adept—are given careful attention.

Things We Owe For

Debt! What horrible associations I have with that word and how I loathe it. And yet I am deeply in debt. I am in debt to the universe. I owe the trees, the streams, the winding roads, the birds of the air and the scented flowers in the meadows. I owe for the air I breathe, the food I eat, and even the earth I tread upon. I owe for a mother's and father's love and for the labor and struggle that have made life enjoyable. Most of all, I owe for that intangible thing called love. For without love life would be a blank.

Every day I am growing deeper and deeper in debt. I owe for every ray of sunshine, and for the beautiful sky overhead.

Yes, I am hopelessly and endlessly in debt. But it does not annoy me. I shall not be called upon to pay it all. I only hope that some day, when I shall pass it on to others, my account may be less than that which came to me when I was born.

Nuggets of Thought

All the lost mines of Mexico, all the argosies that ever sailed from the Indies, all the gold and silver-laden ships of the treasure fleets of storied Spain count no more value than a beggar's dole compared with the wealth that is today created every eight hours by modern business ideas—W. C. Holman.

Only those who have the patience to do simple things perfectly will acquire the skill to do difficult things easily—Schiller.

As tools become rusty, so does the mind; a garden uncared-for soon becomes smothered in weeds; a talent neglected withers and dies—Ethel R. Page.

Money and time are the heaviest burdens of life, and the unhappiest of all mortals are those who have more of either than they know how to use—Samuel Johnson.

It is the mark of a superior man that, left to himself, he is able endlessly to amuse, interest and entertain himself out of his personal stock of meditations, ideas, criticisms, memories, philosophy, humor and what not—George Eliot.

Decreased Movement of Cattle Helps Ease Pressure on Buyers at Markets

The 12 major livestock markets across the nation registered some 25,000 fewer saleable cattle and calves on Monday than on the same day last week, notes Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald in his weekly market summary. His release continues: This amounted to a better than 20 percent slash in the cattle supply compared with a week earlier. The result was that heavy pressures on prices were eased, and at most markets the trade showed some strength.

The margin of recovery from the previous week's lows was generally narrow but there was a definite reversal in the downturn due to the slackened receipts. The trade at Fort Worth generally took the view that, if stockmen and farmers continue to space their shipments through the week, serious price impairments such as were suffered in the past two weeks can be avoided.

At Fort Worth most classes of cattle and calves were active and steady to stronger, with instances 25 to 50 cents higher through the list. In a few cases advances were even longer. Fed steers were in small supply and sold in the slowest trade of any class and at steady price.

USDA's concern with the problem of contract farming in animal agriculture follows the concern of most industries who do business with farmers.

Some sources have raised the issue the contract farming may, in the end, result in price fixing or otherwise invade the realms of violation of anti-trust laws.

PLAYING IT HEDGY.

A canny Maine farmer, who made it a rule to think before speaking, was approached by a stranger one day and asked, "How much is that prize Jersey heifer of yours worth?"

The farmer thought a moment, then asked, "Are you a tax assessor or has she been killed by a train?"

NEWSMAN DIES—Dan A. Greenwell, 61, executive vice president and treasurer of The Dallas Times Herald, died last week of a heart attack.

Two Hamlin Pastors

Two Hamlin pastors are away in revival meetings this week. Rev. Edmund W. Robb, pastor of the First Methodist Church, is doing the preaching in services at Clyde Methodist Church. Rev. Calvin Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is preaching in a revival at Tye.

Most Young Folks
Become Taxpayers
Before They Are 21

When a young man or young lady grows up nowadays he usually becomes of age not by becoming 21, but through becoming a taxpayer, points out Tax Man Sam in a release to The Herald.

Long before the young folks reach the 21 mark nowadays they are usually (1) paying income tax; (2) paying social security tax for their eventual retirement; and (3) if they go into business, they are paying employers' taxes.

Before you go to work you must secure a social security number. You get a Farm SS-4 from your post office to file your social security number. If you are going into business and will become an employer you probably need to read Internal Revenue Service Publication No. 15, Circular E, "The Employer's Tax Guide." This tax guide will tell you whether you need an employer's number or not.

Young folks nowadays find that it's less taxing to be well informed on taxes.

Large Scale Government Spending Is Difficult to Control, Says Burleson

It is difficult, if not impossible, to identify the real monetary obligations of the federal government, declares Omar Burleson, congressman from this district, in his weekly news release to The Herald. He continues: We generally know what the public debt is supposed to be. We know the amount of the obligations for which appropriated money has not yet been spent. But we do not know the real obligation of the United States treasury for programs underwritten and guaranteed by the government.

The practice of financing large scale spending programs by treasury borrowing without getting the approval of the Congress is a serious defect of our system. In fact, there is considerable doubt that it is a part of our system, but it is a practice of recent years. There is even doubt that it is a constitutional action.

The government is in the guarantee business for numerous enterprises, and actually has on hand billions of borrowed money which does not show up in its obligated column. This is another instance of the Congress having yielded the control of the purse strings to the executive department.

It has already yielded up to more than one-third of its control in direct appropriations on the installment plan. In other words, of our total budget more than one-third must be appropriated to meet fixed charges such as interest on the public debt and numerous other items over which no one has any control as to whether it shall be paid or not. The Congress should, however, control the borrowing authority of the federal treasury to underwrite and guarantee all of the programs now in vogue.

A part of this spending authority and underwriting even applies to foreign governments. To a large degree, the president has been given a "blank check" to spend as he sees fit to meet emergencies around the world.

It reminds us that, in spite of all the world spending, we are in desperate trouble in many places. If our "foreign aid" has accomplished its purpose, it is a good question to ask why are we in this tragic situation in the Middle East.

The truth is we have been caught in a web of blackmail. Countries never heard of a few years ago now emerge with demands that, unless they receive our dollars, they will go over to the Soviets on promises. Several countries which have given the right for United States defense bases within their territory are now threatening to expel us unless more "aid" is given them.

The sentiment grows here in Washington that the U. S. is supporting a considerable number of international "moochers" who are playing both sides of the street in their dealing with Russia and America.

There are two principal ways to break this policy. The first cure for this situation is to challenge these threats with the exercise of greater prudence in hand-outs which have not proved their worth.

The second is to develop as rapidly as possible an operational inter-continental missile or space wagon, which can defend this country from its own shores.

Until these two things are done, there is little chance that our tremendous defense expenditures (which are almost two-thirds of all expenditures) are likely to be reduced.

When the U. S. has such weapons, the need for foreign bases will not be necessary. These billions in hand-outs certainly can be reduced, if not entirely stopped.

Our own defense appropriations can be reduced. Until this happens, the bill will continue to be high.

This is not an attitude of isolationism. The fact is, we have little choice but to engage in world cooperation. The world has gotten too small to live otherwise. We cannot, however, continue to be subjected to the blackmail pressure from every corner of the earth.

ARGUE MARINES IN LEBANON—Donald Peisch of Dallas and Helen Heise of Appleton, Wisconsin, (left) are shown in Austin as they present their arguments to students at the University of Texas in an effort to get signatures on a petition opposing the landing of U. S. Marines in Lebanon. Both are students at the university and are leaders of the group backing the petition. The group's booth was blessed by university officials when large crowds of arguing students gathered around the petitioners.

New Mexico Man to Preach in Revival at North Central Church

Annual summer revival of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church is slated to begin tomorrow (Friday) evening, it is announced by Rev. Woodrow McHugh, pastor.

Rev. Bill T. Carter, pastor of Rock Chapel Baptist Church of New Mexico, will do the preaching in the series of services, which will be held at 9:30 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.

Rev. Carter is the third oldest preacher in point of service in the state of New Mexico.

Rev. McHugh and his congregation extend a hearty invitation to the public to attend all the services of the revival.

The revival services will continue through Sunday, August 24, the pastor announces.

New Farm Legislation Imperative Says West

Texas farmers and ranchers face a drastic reduction in income next year unless new farm legislation is passed before Congress adjourns, warns J. H. West, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

Experience has proven that it is impossible to bring up a bill in January and get it passed before planting time," West said. "Farmers are not as concerned with the politics of the farm bill as they are with what their acreage allotments and income will be next year."

There is still time to secure a workable farm bill, he said, but "we must act now."

Be no question, shrink from no conclusion, but follow truth wherever it may lead.—Henry George.

Mary Lou Maberry of McCaulley and Donald Richard Rowland repeated wedding vows Saturday evening in the First Methodist Church at Hamlin. Officiating for the double ring rites was Rev. Jim T. Pickens, chaplain of McMurry College in Abilene.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kyle Maberry of McCaulley, and young Rowland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brad Rowland Sr. of Hamlin.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length dress styled with a chantilly lace bodice combined with a taffeta skirt. It was fashioned with a sabrina neckline and short sleeves enriched by a scattering of pearl pearls and iridescent sequins. The elongated waistline had a back-sweep pleated cummerbund and two bustle bows that fell into a chapel train, from a tiara of pearls. She carried a cascade of gardenias, stephanotis and pale yellow roses tied with wide white ribbon and English ivy with pearls.

Mrs. Rudy Hammie of Lubbock attended her sister as matron-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Bishop of Lubbock, Mrs. H. I. Knight of San Antonio and Mrs. Marvin Overton of Galveston. Carol Schugart of Lubbock was flower girl.

Given in marriage by her brother, Robert Griffin of Madill, Oklahoma, the bride was gowned in a bridal dress of chantilly lace and tulle over satin. It was waltz length with a scoop neckline, short sleeves, drop bodice of lace, and buttoned down the back. It had a full tulle skirt and lace mitts. The veil was made of queen's crown of pearls and sequins. The bouquet was a white orchid over a white Bible, surrounded with feathered carnations and streamers.

The maid-of-honor's dress was a dusty blue lace sheath over taffeta. She had matching accessories of blue shoes, gloves, purse and hat. Her bouquet was a pink carnation colonel's bouquet.

Mrs. Daniel is a graduate of the Madill High School of Madill, Oklahoma, and received her degree from Southeastern State College at Durant, Oklahoma. She was been teaching at Odessa for several years. Young Daniel is a graduate of Abilene High School and the University of Texas. He is a safety engineer for the American Insurance Group in Odessa.

Wows were repeated by the young people before a white arch with greenery in the background, with baskets of flowers on each side with white tapers. There were two candelabra on each side of the arch.

Wedding music was played by Mrs. Ashley Lawson, organist, who also accompanied Lewis Jordan, soloist.

Maid-of-honor was Gladys Griffin of Concho, Oklahoma, sister of the bride. Best man was Truett Daniel of Odessa, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Wayne Chandler and John E. Gibbs, both of Odessa.

Austin.—The Texas Legislative Budget Board is somewhat in the position of the harassed husband who is struggling with a stack of unpaid bills when his wife announces the children all need new shoes.

Budget board works out a recommended state spending plan in advance of each regular legislative session. This year, to make "ends meet," the board will have to stretch a shorter rope over more territory.

Briefly, the horns of the dilemma are these:

Horn 1. For the next biennium state agencies have voted in requests to the budget board for $368,000,000 more than they received for the current two-year appropriation period.

Horn 2. Official predictions indicate the state is far from having enough money to grant increases. Instead, it may start the next two-year fiscal period $100,000,000 short of enough money just to maintain the present level of spending.

That leaves a potential gap of some $468,000,000 between the two horns—money requested and money in sight. For the next Legislature it's a half billion dollar headache.

As far as can be seen, closing the gap would involve either (1) sharp cuts in state spending, (2) enactment of a fair sized new tax or (3) letting the state government go into debt.

None of these courses likely would be either painless or popular. Third possibility is virtually prohibited by the constitution which says no appropriation in excess of revenue in sight can be passed "save in the case of emergency and imperative public necessity and with a four-fifths vote of the total membership of each house . . ."

In the past the budget board has limited its spending recommendations to foreseeable revenue under existing tax laws. Making up the board are the lieutenant governor, speaker of the House and eight other legislators.

More Here, More There.—How did new money requests get up to $368,000,000 when the present state budget is at an all-time high of more than $2,000,000,000?

Big figures result from a lot of requests from a lot of state departments and institutions. Examples:

State colleges, faced with increasing enrollments, want some $49,000,000 more.

State Water Board, charged with a stepped-up water conservation planning program, asked for a nearly doubled appropriation of $3,594,180.

Hospitals and special schools asked for a 31.5 per cent increase, up to $114,000,000.

State Youth Council asked substantial increases for the facilities it operates including a 99.5 per cent increase (to $4,745,925) for the severely overcrowded Gatesville School for Boys.

"How Much" Labels.—Budget board has proposed enactment of a "price tag" procedure to help lawmakers keep track of just how much each measure they consider would cost.

Fire, Water and Guns Kill Many Children

Fire, water and guns killed 4,380 children last year.

The 1958 edition of "Accident Facts," the statistical yearbook of the National Safety Council, which is just off the press, shows that 2,150 children under 15 years drowned in 1957.

Fire killed 1,750 in the same age group. Firearms claimed 480 young lives.

In 1950 Texas' population was sixth in the nation.

STORE BEEF SAFELY.

Fresh beef should be stored in the meat compartment of the refrigerator at a temperature just above freezing, 35 to 40 degrees. Hamburger should be used within a day, but roasts will keep satisfactorily for several days, according to the Texas Beef Council. For longer periods of storage, up to two weeks, freeze it in the ice cube compartment of your refrigerator.

Gerald Woodruff at El Toro Marine Base

Marine Private First Class Gerald L. Woodruff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Woodruff of Hamlin, and husband of the former Dolores E. Decker of 1049 Southeast Avenue, Hamlin, is serving with the Third Marine Aircraft Wing based at the Marine Corps Air Station at El Toro, California, according to a release from the base to The Herald.

Young Woodruff has been in the Marines for two years.

A GOOD TRICK.

A teacher, lecturing on highway safety, advised the children that, once they started to cross the street, they should never look back. "Remember what happened to Lot's wife," she said. "She looked back and turned into a pillar of salt."

"I was out driving with my mother last week," one child volunteered. "She looked back and turned into a telephone pole."

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by; think of yourself as "he" instead of "I."—Strickland Gillian.

Options for Football Seats Urged by Cook

Hamlin area residents who will take options on certain seats at the Pied Piper stadium for the football games of the coming three years are urged to secure these options from the school office by August 25. The seats regularly priced at $1.25 per game are available on option basis for $1 per game, according to Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook.

Previous option holders will have first choice on the same seats they held before, Cook says. After August 25 others may secure options on seats remaining untaken.

Season football tickets for the five home games will also go on sale August 25, it is announced.

Claims for Fuel Tax Refunds Should be Filed by September

Farmers may submit claims for federal gasoline tax refunds on fuel used for farming purposes. This tax of three cents per gallon is entirely separate from the state tax for which local distributors furnish exemption slips.

Here are the main points to keep in mind:

1. Refund claims must be only for gasoline used in producing or harvesting farm or ranch products.

2. The amount used between July 1, 1957, and June 30, 1958, should be included.

3. Use Form 2240, obtainable from the county agent's office for requesting the refund—only one claim per farm operator.

4. Refund claims must be submitted on or before September 30, 1958. Mail them to the District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Dallas, Texas.

5. Keep proper records for verifying the refund claim submitted.

If questions arise about this federal gasoline tax refund contact your county agent for information.

Rotan Pastor Will Lead in McCaulley Baptist Revival

Rev. Huron A. Polnac, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Rotan, will be evangelist for the revival services at McCaulley Baptist Church, beginning Sunday, August 17, according to the pastor, Rev. Gene Y. Brock. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Joplin of McCaulley will be in charge of the music for the meeting.

Services will be conducted at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. each day. They will continue through Sunday, August 24.

Rev. Polnac has recently come to Fisher County and to the pastorate of the Rotan church. Prior to his coming he was pastor of the First Baptist Church at Weatherford, going there from Munday. He is considered a capable and outstanding preacher and evangelist, as well as a leader in denominational affairs, Pastor Brock asserts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joplin live in the Royston community, but have been members of the McCaulley Baptist Church for a number of years. They have ably led in the musical program of the church as well as in revivals for churches of the surrounding area.

"We extend a cordial invitation to all to attend our services during these days of revival effort," stated the pastor.

RETURN FROM VACATION. Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele of Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. William Steele of Fort Worth returned Monday from California. Pictures of Livestock Trading Will Be Aid in Review of Market Transactions

Motion pictures and still photos will be used to show the livestock producers what kind of livestock to sell for what kind of prices, starting in August, according to Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly summary. He continues: The pictures will be made during the trading on the Fort Worth market and will be accompanied by a commentary by Gouldy. The series will be a feature of the regular Saturday farm editor's report by Doc Ruhmann of WBAP-TV.

Ruhmann's program originates at WBAP-TV, channel 5, 12:00 to 2:30 p. m. Saturday. In announcing the new feature, Ruhmann pointed out, "We plan to use a good many still photos, along with the motion picture films, so that certain pens of livestock can be displayed long enough to be studied by the viewer while Ted tells about their grade, class and weights and prices on them. We think it will give the viewers the next best thing to a visit to the market to get posted on livestock values."

"Along with his summary of market trends, Ted will also intersperse comments about current market demand and the supply situation on livestock," Ruhmann said.

The cattle trade at Fort Worth Monday reflected the weaker market on fed steers and heifers which developed at Northern markets along with increased cattle supplies. The 12 major markets Monday reported more than a 20 per cent increase in cattle and calves at Northern points, these being mostly fed cattle. The trade again displayed its sensitivity to the supply situation and fed cattle sold lower everywhere.

At Fort Worth a few choice yearling heifers topped at $28, but the rank and file fed steers were 50 cents lower and some bids were $1 off as packers displayed faint urgency. Their lack of interest was credited to expectations of lower priced beef from their Corn Belt plants, as well as from good supplies of fat cattle shipped direct to their plants.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $23.50 to $26.50, and a few fancy fat yearlings and heifers drew $27 to $28. Common and medium slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $18 to $23.50. Mature steers ranged from $26.50 down.

Fat cows ranged mostly from $17 to $20, with a few to $20.50 and $21. Canners and cutters drew $11 to $17. Bulls sold from $17 to $22.

Good and choice slaughter calves ranged from $23.50 to $27.50, and common and medium sorts sold at $17 to $23.50. Culls sold at $14 to $17. Good and choice stocker steer calves ranged from $30 to $33, and heifer calves cashed at $29 down. Stocker steer yearlings of good kinds sold from $27 downward, and feeder cattle cashed at $22 to $26.

Sheep and lambs were steady at Fort Worth Monday. Good and choice slaughter lambs cashed at $21 to $22, and cull to medium lambs drew $15 to $20.50. Stocker and feeder lambs drew $18 to $20, some clipped feeders at $19. Good and choice yearlings cashed at $14 to $16.50. Old wethers drew $12.50 down. Slaughter ewes brought $6.50 to $7.50. Old Bucks sold around $6.

Hogs were steady at Fort Worth Monday as choice butchers again topped at $23.25. Medium to good butchers sold from $22 to $27.50. Sows cashed at $18 to $21, and pigs drew $21 to $22. Stags cashed at $12 to $15, and boars sold from $10 to $12.

Good and choice slaughter calves ranged from $23.50 to $27.50, and common and medium sorts sold at $17 to $23.50. Culls sold at $14 to $17. Good and choice stocker steer calves ranged from $30 to $33, and heifer calves cashed at $29 down. Stocker steer yearlings of good kinds sold from $27 downward, and feeder cattle cashed at $22 to $26.

People Urged to Check Up on Social Security Accounts

Workers and self employed people are encouraged to check their social security accounts at least once every three years, according to R. R. Tuley Jr., district manager at Abilene, in a release to The Herald for Hamlin area people.

This may be done easily with a pre-printed and addressed postal card furnished free of charge by all social security offices. Just insert your own name, social security number, date of birth and mailing address before signing, stamping and mailing the card to the central accounting office in Baltimore, Maryland.

Tuley pointed out that each person should make sure his account is correct because the amount of future benefits to him or his survivors is based on the wages or self employment income posted to his social security account. If an error or an employer's failure to report wages is discovered within three years, quick corrective action can be taken. After three years, it is more difficult and sometimes impossible to correct an account because of the statute of limitations and other factors.

The Social Security Administration maintains approximately 125,000,000 separate individual accounts and has an index of nearly 5,000,000 employers. Most of the huge job of posting all the accounts is done by advanced automation techniques. The postings of these account are almost fool-proof, Tuley stated, but sometimes an employer fails to report some wages or reports them under an incorrect social security number. Also, self employed people occasionally report their income under an incorrect number or even without a number. Any of these might cause an error in an account.

Since so much depends on your account number being correct, you should keep a record of your income each year and check your account regularly to make sure it is correct. The handy card for doing this may be secured by writing the Social Security Office, Abilene, Texas.

Allowance Made for School Absences Due To Hamlin Epidemic

Retention of state aid that might have cost Hamlin schools a teacher was announced this week by Superintendent of Schools C. F. Cook.

Because of the epidemic of illnesses among students in the five Hamlin schools during the past winter and early spring, average daily attendance took a decided drop for several weeks. Since payments from the state are based on average daily attendance, cut in the payments was threatened since more than 100 students were absent from school for several weeks.

Cook petitioned the State Department of Education not to cut the state aid because of the unusual circumstances. He was advised a few days ago that the aid would not be trimmed.

Elderly Taxpayers Entitled to Many Tax Exemptions by Law

Congress has recognized that our elder citizens should not be required to pay income tax on the same basis as younger taxpayers. Taxpayers who are over 65 years of age are entitled to a number of credits against the income tax due, reminds Tax Man Sam in a release to The Herald.

Sam says (1) at 65 they get an extra exemption; (2) Congress has allowed a retirement income credit up to 20 per cent of $1,200 income on certain types of retirement income (this is worth as much as $240 per year in tax savings); (3) Congress has exempted social security payments and some other kinds of retirement benefits; and (4) some annuities are partially exempt from taxation.

If you are either retired or over 65, be sure to read your income tax instructions carefully on the retirement income credit before you file. You may want to purchase Publication 17, "Your Federal Income Tax" for 35 cents to study the instructions on retirement income credit before filing your return. Uncle Sam doesn't want taxpayers paying taxes that don't owe.

James E. Harrison, New Dentist, Here To Replace Seals

New dentist in Hamlin is Dr. James E. Harrison, who arrived Wednesday to assume the office and practice of Dr. William S. Seals, who is moving to Orange.

Harrison is a graduate of the Baylor School of Dentistry at Dallas. His home has been at Pecanach.

The new dentist is married and he and his wife have three girls, twins, Carolyn and Marlyn, who are three, and a baby girl whose name was not ascertained. They have purchased the former George T. Campbell home on Northwest Avenue H, and will move to the city this weekend. It probably will be several days before Dr. Harrison formally opens for business in the Seals building, fixtures having to be rearranged, he indicated.

Dr. Seals and family were due to move to Orange today (Thursday), where he will be associated with Dr. J. M. Crowley in a new dental clinic.

The Seals, who have resided at Hamlin for more than seven years, have been active in community affairs. He has been president of the Camp Fire Girls Council, Lions Club president, a Boy Scoutmaster and vice president of the Chamber of Commerce. He was a member of the City Council for two terms. The family was active in the Church of Christ. The Seals have two children, Carol Ann, 11, and Henry, eight.

Farmer's Tax Guide May Help Save on Income Tax Payment

It has been a long, hot summer, and there are probably no "blue notches" in sight for two or three months yet, reminds Tax Man Sam in a release to The Herald.

When you have moved to town you don't lay by the crops at this time of the year like Pa and Ma did a few years ago. However, if you are still turning the sod for a living you are probably awfully glad to get an opportunity to sit on the front porch for a day now and then instead of riding a tractor in the sun.

Most farmers break out in a cold sweat at the mention of income taxes, but the "Farmer's Tax Guide" that a lot of farmers picked up at the county agent's office last winter has a lot of cold facts for front porch study on a sunny day. The "Farmer's Guide" will save farmers some next January.

Increased Social Security Payments Made in County

Total of $51,259 in social security benefits was paid to some 1,189 persons in Jones County for the month of December, 1957, according to official figures just released by R. R. Tuley Jr., district manager for the Social Security Administration in Abilene.

This represents an increase of some 30 to 35 per cent over comparable figures for December, 1956, he added.

These payments went to retired men and women past retirement age (62 for women, 65 for men), to severely disabled persons past age 50, to wives and dependent husbands of retired persons, to children of retired or deceased parents (either under 18 or disabled since before age 18), to widows, dependent widowers, and dependent parents (if no spouse or child eligible for payment).

Tuley urges all persons past retirement age to contact a representative of the Abilene social security office as soon as possible if they had as much as two or three years of social security credits on their past and present earnings, to avoid possible loss of benefits through a misunderstanding of what is meant by "retirement." Too, upon the death of anyone holding a social security card, inquiry should be made regarding the possibility of survivor benefits due some members of the family. Delays in making inquiries can result in the loss of some benefits.

The figures for Jones County are further broken down by benefit category in the following table:

| Retirement and disability, 605, receiving $32,713; wives and husbands, 266 receiving $7,124; children, 190 receiving $6,106; and widows, widowers and parents 128 receiving $5,316. |

Ten Arrested in Raid On Gambling Place

Nine players and the operator of a colored cafe in Northeast Hamlin were arrested for gambling Saturday night about 10:00 o'clock by City Police Chief E. B. (Buddy) Watson and Policeman Jack Pyron.

The cafe operator, Ollie Mae Johnson was taken with the gamblers, four Mexicans and five colored men, before City Judge J. E. Patterson after charges were filed. Mrs. Johnson was assessed a fine of $110.70. Four of the players were fined $11.70, four were fined $15.70 and one was fined $30.70.

PREACHING in revival services that begin Sunday at the Calvary Baptist Church will be Rev. W. A. Corley (above), pastor at Mineral Wells. Services will be conducted at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m., and will continue through Sunday, August 24, according to the pastor, Rev. G. C. Henry.

Retirement Benefits Under Social Security Depend on Payments

During the past few years Congress has passed laws providing social security benefits for almost every occupation except doctors. Taxpayers who earn wages do not have to worry about social security taxes since their employers withhold the proper amount of the tax and pay both the employee's part and the employer's part to the government.

During the past few years, however, a large number of farmers and business men and others have been required to pay self employment tax. If you are self employed and earn more than $400, you are required to pay this tax. Payment of self employment tax is not optional.

It is a very important subject for older taxpayers who are approaching the age of 65 for men and 62 for women since the amount of self employment tax you pay determines in large part the amount of social security benefits you will draw on retirement.

You ought to be careful in determining your self employment tax to assure your social security benefits, declares Tax Man Sam.

DOT TO BE OUT OF BUSINESS—Governor Price Daniel at a press conference in Austin told newsmen that Texas' conservative Democrats were working with a big bloc of "strong loyalists" to put the DOT out of business. He said the new anti-DOT coalition would muster 3,935 votes at the San Antonio convention to only 853 votes for the DOT faction.

Following Through with Vaccination Urged as Polio Still Threatens Many

Many people in the Hamlin territory have not taken advantage of opportunities to take Salk vaccine inoculations, declare health authorities.

Before the advent of the Salk polio vaccine, Texans prayed for a release from the ravages of paralytic polio for themselves and for their children.

The picture has changed a great deal since then. With the announcement that Dr. Jonas Salk had developed an effective vaccine for the prevention of polio, parents swarmed to their doctors and clinics to have their children protected.

Since then the incidence of paralytic polio has fallen many fold, and an apathetic state of mind has fallen on many Texans concerning the need for protecting themselves.

Many students have received their shots, resulting in a favorable vaccination picture among school age children. As a result this year and last year has seen the pre-school age children with the highest attack rate of paralytic polio.

Who should be vaccinated? Everyone can benefit from polio vaccine inoculations, since the disease strikes all ages. However, the present goal is to vaccinate the most susceptible groups—from infants to age 40. Especially lax in receiving their shots are children under five and adults over 20.

Noel Weaver Resigns From School Board

Noel (Duck) Weaver, member of the board of education for the Hamlin Independent School District, resigned from the board at the Monday evening meeting of the group. A relative, Mrs. Guy Weaver, was to be named to the faculty of the school, and law does not permit a relative of faculty members on the board, hence the resignation.

Mrs. Guy Weaver was named to teach first grade in the primary school. She is the former Toby Sellers of Hamlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sellers.

Mrs. O. D. Dickson of San Antonio arrived Monday to spend her vacation with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Henry.

How to Keep a Free Press FREE

SELDOM does Freedom of the Press disappear in one annihilating blow.

In countries where the Press has been chained, there was first a period when it failed to realize and resist the beginnings of its end — the first encroachments on its freedom. There were powerful interests which wanted certain facts "kept out of the newspapers." There was pressure here and pressure there to have the truth withheld.

Before the Press of any nation succumbs to tyranny, there always has been a period of failure to speak out.

Here in America there is only the limitation of national security — the necessity to protect and preserve confidential military and scientific information — which can be accepted by a Press that is determined to stay free.

America's newspapers have made, and will continue to make, a conscientious effort to protect that security — at the same time keeping the people informed as fully as possible on all matters concerning their welfare. So long as American newspapers pursue that policy fearlessly, our Press, our people and our country shall remain free of tyranny.

Record Crowds Attended Baptist Camps at Lueders

Baptist youth camp August 5-8 completed the camp season for District 17 at Lueders Baptist Encampment grounds for 1958. The attendants at various camps included many from the Hamlin section.

Almost every camp had a higher attendance than last year and some of them ran as much as 100 higher than the corresponding 1957 camp.

Another group ride is scheduled Saturday afternoon when the riders will parade in downtown Hamlin. They will meet at the L. C. Bonds arena, just north of the Katy Railway depot to assemble for the parade, it is announced.

For instance, 637 campers attended the Junoir Girls' Auxiliary camp this season and attendance last year was 530.

The Sunbeam camp on August 1 numbered 435 boys and girls in 1958 as compared to 329 last year.

Total attendance for 1958 was 2,936, Mrs. N. I. Williams said.

Last year's number totaled 2,599.

Mrs. Williams is treasurer of Lueders Baptist Encampment and has been working at the camp for several seasons. Her husband has just completed his first season as business manager. He succeeded Rev. Henry Littleton, who had been serving in that capacity for many years.

Final payment on the new swimming pool at the encampment was made in July through the cooperation of the various churches of District 17. Many of the churches have put the encampment in their budget and others sending special contributions to the encampment program.

Rev. Byron Bryant of Breckenridge, encampment president, expressed appreciation for the fine cooperation, interest and participation throughout the season.

Added Caution Is Urged for Peak of Vacation Period

"Safety is here to stay — are you?"

This question was put to Texans this week by J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, as he sought public support for the association's current slow-down-and-live campaign.

Musick reminded drivers that 451 persons were killed in Texas traffic crashes during July and August last year, two of the peak vacation months.

"Everyone can give the slow-down-and-live program a boost by simply becoming safety conscious. Most people are familiar with the laws, rules and courtesies of the road, but all too often there is a tendency to forget them — then is when the accident occurs," Musick said.

He reminded motorists that the Texas Department of Public Safety and other traffic officials are doing all they can in Texas to protect summer travelers by maintaining a firm enforcement policy.

"Highways are loaded with people who want to 'get away from it all,' and if they are not careful they won't live to get back from it all," the safety expert said. "Every driver must appreciate the fact that accidents don't always happen to the 'other guy,' if he is to survive in today's volume of traffic.

IS COMMUNISM A PROBLEM AROUND HAMLIN?

Too many of us, as citizens of small cities and rural areas console ourselves that we are not to be concerned with the threat of Communism. It is something for the legislators and others to wrestle with. But that is not true. Communism is everybody's threat—it even threatens our very livelihood right here in the Hamlin community. It waves a dangerous hand over the American way in our everyday lives.

Communism has produced a vast literature. That literature has now been notably enriched with J. Edgar Hoover's newly published "Masters of Deceit."

Hoover's book carries the sub-title "The Story of Communism in America and How to Fight It." No man is more familiar with that story. He was made director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation during the Coolidge administration, has been retained in office by every president since, and has done an outstanding job in keeping the bureau free of political influence, inefficiency and corruption. And, in recent years, Hoover and the bureau have become more and more involved with the Communist conspiracy.

Purpose of "Masters of Deceit" is intensely practical. It is to explain the facts about Communism—what it is, how it works, what its aims are, the dangers it poses, and what loyal Americans must do to protect their freedom. Hoover provides a short account of Communism's beginnings, and goes on to explain who American Communists and why they adopt the ideology. He shows how the party is organized, and deals with its subtle and devious strategy and tactics. Espionage and sabotage—weapons with which trained Communists are extraordinarily adept—are given careful attention.

Things We Owe For

Debt! What horrible associations I have with that word and how I loathe it. And yet I am deeply in debt. I am in debt to the universe. I owe the trees, the streams, the winding roads, the birds of the air and the scented flowers in the meadows. I owe for the air I breathe, the food I eat, and even the earth I tread upon. I owe for a mother's and father's love and for the labor and struggle that have made life enjoyable. Most of all, I owe for that intangible thing called love. For without love life would be a blank.

Every day I am growing deeper and deeper in debt. I owe for every ray of sunshine, and for the beautiful sky overhead.

Yes, I am hopelessly and endlessly in debt. But it does not annoy me. I shall not be called upon to pay it off. I only hope that some day, when I shall pass it on to others, my account may be less than that which came to me when I was born.

Nuggets of Thought

All the lost mines of Mexico, all the argosies that ever sailed from the Indies, all the gold and silver-laden ships of the treasure fleets of storied Spain count no more value than a beggar's dole compared with the wealth that is today created every eight hours by modern business ideas—W. C. Holman.

Only those who have the patience to do simple things perfectly will acquire the skill to do difficult things easily—Schiller.

As tools become rusty, so does the mind; a garden uncared-for soon becomes smothered in weeds; a talent neglected withers and dies—Ethel R. Page.

Money and time are the heaviest burdens of life, and the unhappiest of all mortals are those who have more of either than they know how to use.—Samuel Johnson.

It is the mark of a superior man that, left to himself, he is able endlessly to amuse, interest and entertain himself out of his personal stock of meditations, ideas, criticisms, memories, philosophy, humor and what not—George Mathew.

Decreased Movement of Cattle Helps Ease Pressure on Buyers at Markets

The 12 major livestock markets across the nation registered some 25,000 fewer saleable cattle and calves on Monday than on the same day last week, notes Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald in his weekly market summary. His release continues: This amounted to a better than 20 per cent slash in the cattle supply compared with a week earlier. The result was that heavy pressures on prices were eased, and at most markets the trade showed some strength.

The margin of recovery from the previous week's lows was generally narrow but there was a definite reversal in the downturn due to the slackened receipts. The trade at Fort Worth generally took the view that, if stockmen and farmers continue to space their shipments through the week, serious price impairments such as were suffered in the past two weeks can be avoided.

At Fort Worth most classes of cattle and calves were active and steady to stronger, with instances 25 to 50 cents higher through the list. In a few cases advances were even longer. Fed steers were in small supply and sold in the slowest trade of any class and at steady prices.

Comparative prices included good and choice steers and yearlings at $22 to $22.50, and common and medium offerings from $18 to $22. Fat cows sold from $17 to $19.50, and cullers and cutters cashed at $11 to $17. Bulls cashed at $17 to $21.50.

Good and choice slaughter calves netted $22.50 to $23.50, a few to $26. Common and medium sorts sold from $17 to $22. Stocker steer calves bulked at $25 to $31, and heifer calves sold from $27.75 down. Stocker yearlings sold from $26 down, and feeder cattle sold from $20 to $23.50.

Butcher hogs were steady to 25 cents lower on Monday at Fort Worth as choice hogs topped at $23.50. The bulk of the shipments were mixed as to grades and weights, and medium to good butchers cashed at $22 to $23.25. Sows netted $18 to $19 on heavyweights, and up to $21.50 on lightweight sows. Stags sold from $12 to $15. Some feeder hogs sold from $22 down. Light pigs were quoted well above that range.

Good slaughter lambs cashed at $20 to $21 at Fort Worth Monday, and all classes of sheep and lambs cleared at steady prices, quality considered. Cull to medium lambs cashed at $14 to $20. Stocker and feeder lambs bulked at $19 to $20.25, some bucks at $16 to $17.

Good yearling muttons sold from $17 to $18, and cull to medium yearlings sold from $12 to $16. Slaughter ewes bulked at $7 to $8. Aged slaughter bucks sold around $6. Breeding ewes ranged from $10 to $22.

It was learned in Fort Worth this week that government printing office presses were flying in getting out a special bulletin entitled "Contract Farming and

Two Hamlin Pastors In Revival Meetings

Two Hamlin pastors are away in revival meetings this week. Rev. Edmund W. Robb, pastor of the First Methodist Church, is doing the preaching in services at Clyde Methodist Church. Rev. Calvin Bailey, pastor of the First Baptist Church, is preaching in a revival at Tye.

Rev. James Graves, associate pastor of the First Baptist Church at Abilene, filled the pulpit at the First Baptist Church Sunday at both services. Rev. E. L. Yeats of Rotan, former local pastor, will be in the First Methodist Church pulpit next Sunday, Robb says.

Most Young Folks Become Taxpayers Before They Are 21

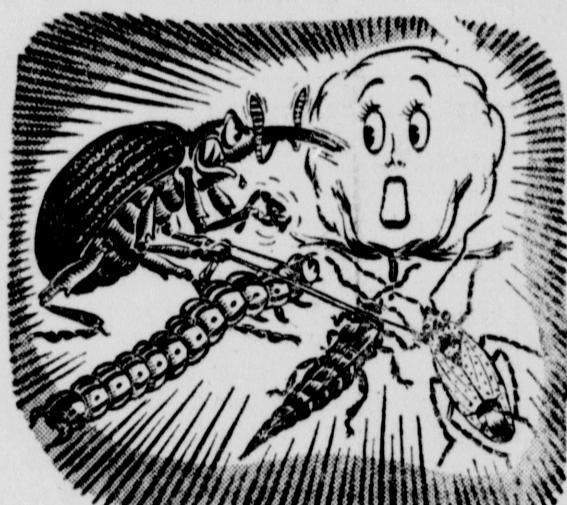

When a young man or young lady grows up nowadays he usually becomes of age not by becoming 21, but through becoming a taxpayer, points out Tax Man Sam in a release to The Herald. Long before the young folks reach the 21 mark nowadays they are usually (1) paying income tax; (2) paying social security tax for their eventual retirement; and (3) if they go into business they are paying employers' taxes.

Before you go to work you must secure a social security number. You get a Farm SS-4 from your post office to file your social security number. If you are going into business and will become an employer you probably need to read Internal Revenue Service Publication No. 15, Circular E, "The Employer's Tax Guide." This tax guide will tell you whether you need an employer's number or not.

Young folks nowadays find that it's less taxing to be well informed on taxes.

Large Scale Government Spending Is Difficult to Control, Says Burleson

It is difficult, if not impossible, to identify the real monetary obligations of the federal government, declares Omar Burleson, congressman from this district, in his weekly news release to The Herald. He continues: We generally know what the public debt is supposed to be. We know the amount of the obligations for which appropriated money has not yet been spent. But we do not know the real obligation of the United States treasury for programs underwritten and guaranteed by the government.

The practice of financing large scale spending programs by treasury borrowing without getting the approval of the Congress is a serious defect of our system. In fact, there is considerable doubt that it is a part of our system, but it is a practice of recent years.

There is even doubt that it is a constitutional action.

The government is in the guarantee business for numerous enterprises, and actually has on hand billions of borrowed money which does not show up in its obligated column. This is another instance of the Congress having yielded the control of the purse strings to the executive department.

It has already yielded up to more than one-third of its control in direct appropriations on the installment plan. In other words, of our total budget more than one-third must be appropriated to meet fixed charges such as interest on the public debt and numerous other items over which no one has any control as to whether it shall be paid or not. The Congress should, however, control the borrowing authority of the federal treasury to underwrite and guarantee all of the programs now in vogue.

A part of this spending authority and underwriting even applies to foreign governments. To a large degree, the president has been given a "blank check" to spend as he sees fit to meet emergencies around the world.

It reminds us that, in spite of all the world spending, we are in

Flowing Cold means super-fast, more uniform chilling for all your fresh foods no matter where you store them — in the refrigerator section or on the door — regardless of outside temperatures.

And Flowing Cold means no more frost! Here's how it works:

Fresh warm air enters the refrigerator section every time you open the door — and is drawn by a fan up and over the hidden Refrig-o-Plate that cools it and removes the excess moisture after which it comes back in at the top as Flowing Cold.

Best of all, the moisture removed is evaporated automatically — there's nothing you have to do!

FROSTED-UP! Ordinary freezer chest after 30 days. Everything has liberal coating of frost. Some types demand do-it-yourself defrosting. Others apply electric heat to freezer to melt frost. New Farm Legislation Imperative Says West

Texas farmers and ranchers face a drastic reduction in income next year unless new farm legislation is passed before Congress adjourns, warns J. H. West, president of the Texas Farm Bureau.

"Experience has proven that it is impossible to bring up a bill in January and get it passed before planting time," West said. "Farmers are not as concerned with the politics of the farm bill as they are with what their acreage allotments and income will be next year."

There is still time to secure a workable farm bill, he said, but "we must act now."

Mary Lou Maberry and Don Rowland Repeat Marriage Vows Saturday Eve

Mary Lou Maberry of McCaulley and Donald Richard Rowland of Hamlin repeated wedding vows Saturday evening in the First Methodist Church at Hamlin. Officiating for the double ring rites was Rev. Jim T. Pickens, chaplain of McMurry College in Abilene.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kyle Maberry of McCaulley, and young Rowland is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brad Rowland Sr. of Hamlin.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length dress styled with a chantilly lace bodice combined with a taffeta skirt. It was fashioned with a sabrina neckline and short sleeves enriched by a scattering of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The elongated waistline had a back-sweep pleated cummerbund and two bustle bows that fell into a chapel train from a tiara of pearls. She carried a cascade of gardenias, stephanotis and pale yellow roses tied with wide white ribbon and English ivy with pearls.

Mrs. Rudy Hamric of Lubbock attended her sister as matron-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Bishop of Lubbock, Mrs. H. I. Knight of San Antonio and Mrs. Marvin Overton of Galveston. Carol Schugart of Lubbock was flower girl.

They wore identical dresses of pale yellow silk chiffon with a fitted bodice and draped cowl neckline ending in the center back and floating to the ballerina hemline. Their bouquets were a starburst arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums with wide yellow ribbon and English ivy.

John E. Rowland of Homa, Louisiana, attended his brother as best man.

The bridegroom's mother was organist and Mrs. Willard Maberry was soloist.

The bride is a graduate of McCulley High School. She attended Texas Christian University at Fort Worth, where she was a member of Kappa Delta social sorority. She was graduated from Texas Technological College at Lubbock, where she belonged to Future Teachers of America, the Rodeo and Home Economics Clubs. She has taught homemaking the past year in Lamesa High School and is a member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority there.

The bridegroom was graduated from Hamlin High School and McMurry College at Abilene, where he was a member of the football team, Chanters, Kiva Social Club, Quadrillers, Christian Foundation and Circle K. He served in the U. S. Army for two years. The past two years he has taught biology and chemistry at Lamesa High School.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents in the Pink Room of Hickman's Apartment.

DIETS NEED PROTEINS. Persons on reducing diets should count more than calories, the Texas Beef Council believes. Use a calories chart which also lists protein, mineral and vitamin values of foods, because deficiencies in these essentials can be seriously detrimental to health.

Members of the Phillips Training Union of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church served a covered dish supper on the lawn at Mrs. V. Madden's home last Thursday evening.

Opening prayer was said by Bob Christian. Mrs. D. A. Mullings presided at the business session, at which a committee was appointed to select officers for the new church year. Mrs. Bob Christian brought the devotional. Closing prayer was offered by George Campbell.

There were 20 present to enjoy the good food and fellowship together. Next meeting of the group will be September 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rhoton Sr.

NO TROUBLE AT ALL. A university professor, rather old and absent minded, was awakened by the telephone at 2:00 a.m. Inquired the caller: "Is that one, one, one, one?"

"No," yawned the sleepy professor, "it's eleven, eleven."

"Pardon me," said the caller, "I have the wrong number. Sorry I disturbed you."

"That's all right," muttered the professor, "I had to get up to answer the telephone anyway."

Pointers on Freezing of Foods Given By County Home Demonstration Agent

Freezing is one of the simplest and fastest methods of preserving foods at home. It keeps the natural flavor and food values of most fruits, vegetables and meats better than other methods of food preservation, says Mary Y. Newberry, home demonstration agent.

Right now there are many foods suitable for freezing available in this county.

To freeze peaches, you may pack them in sugar or in syrup, depending on your preference. If you wish to use the syrup pack, make sugar syrup in proportion of three cups sugar to four cups water. Add one-half teaspoon powdered ascorbic acid per quart of syrup or 10 100-milligram tablets. Pour about one-half cup cold sugar syrup in pint freezer container. Slice peeled peaches directly into the container, press fruit down and add syrup to one-half inch from top of container. Place crumpled freezer paper, heavy waxed paper or aluminum foil on top of peaches. This prevents the peaches from floating above the syrup. Seal and freeze immediately.

If you wish to use the sugar pack for peaches, add two-thirds cup sugar to each quart of prepared peaches. Add ascorbic acid to sugar according to directions on your container. Sprinkle sugar and acid mixture over peaches, mix gently until sugar has dissolved; package, seal and freeze immediately.

For further information on freezing foods, or for Bulletin B-175, "Frozen Foods: How to Freeze and How to Cook," contact your home demonstration agent's office at Anson.

BEEF LIVER IS VITAL.

Nutrition experts know of no other product which pound-for-pound supplies as much food value as beef liver. The Texas Beef Council believes liver is an excellent source of practically all vitamins, especially rich in iron and copper which are important for maintaining red blood cells.

Reception at Hotel Follows Griffin-Daniel Ceremony at Odessa

Following the Griffin-Daniel wedding on the evening of August 1 at the First Methodist Church in Odessa, a reception for wedding attendants was held at the Lincoln Hotel Cover Room and about 150 attended.

The serving table was centered by the three-tier wedding cake, and candelabras were on each side of the table.

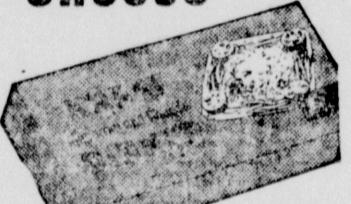

Several people from Hamlin were among attendants at the wedding and reception.

After the reception the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Colorado and the Yellowstone National Park. For traveling the bride wore a brown imported wool suit with black accessories.

The couple will be at home at 1517 East Forty-Third Street in Odessa after August 15.

Rotan Pastor Will Lead in McCaulley Baptist Revival

Rev. Huron A. Polnac, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Rotan, will be evangelist for the revival services at McCaulley Baptist Church, beginning Sunday, August 17, according to the pastor, Rev. G. Y. Brock. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Joplin of McCaulley will be in charge of the music for the meeting.

Services will be conducted at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. each day. They will continue through Sunday, August 24.

Rev. Polnac has recently come to Fisher County and to the pastorate of the Rotan church. Prior to his coming he was pastor of the First Baptist Church at Weatherford, going there from Munday. He is considered a capable and outstanding preacher and evangelist, as well as a leader in denominational affairs, Pastor Brock asserts.

Mr. and Mrs. Joplin live in the Royston community, but have been members of the McCaulley Baptist Church for a number of years. They have ably led in the musical program of the church as well as in revivals for churches of the surrounding area.

"We extend a cordial invitation to all to attend our services during these days of revival effort," stated the pastor.

RETURN FROM VACATION.
Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Steele of Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. William Steele of Fort Worth returned Monday from California. They went the southern route and came back the northern route. While in California they visited a nephew, Donald May, who is in the Army and stationed at Camp Pendleton, California.

TEXAS SINGER AND HIS MANSION — Singer Pat Boone perches on a railing of the Hollywood mansion in which he now lives and which reportedly cost $800,000 when it was built in 1934. It's quite a change for the popular singer who only four years ago lived in a $50-a-month rented apartment at Denton while attending North Texas State College.

Pictures of Livestock Trading Will Be Aid in Review of Market Transactions

Motion pictures and still photos will be used to show the livestock producers what kind of livestock sold for what kind of prices, starting in August, according to Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly summary. He continues: The pictures will be made during the trading on the Fort Worth market and will be accompanied by a commentary by Gouldy. The series will be a feature of the regular Saturday farm editor's report by Doc Ruhmann of WBAP-TV.

Ruhmann's program originates at WBAP-TV, channel 5, 12:00 to 2:30 p. m. Saturday. In announcing the new feature, Ruhmann pointed out, "We plan to use a good many still photos, along with the motion picture films, so that certain pens of livestock can be displayed long enough to be studied by the viewer while Ted tells about their grade, class and weights and prices on them. We think it will give the viewers the next best thing to a visit to the market to get posted on livestock values."

"Along with his summary of market trends, Ted will also intersperse comments about current market demand and the supply situation on livestock," Ruhmann said.

The cattle trade at Fort Worth Monday reflected the weaker market on fed steers and heifers which developed at Northern markets along with increased cattle supplies. The 12 major markets Monday reported more than a 20 per cent increase in cattle and

Increased Social Security Payments Made in County

New dentist in Hamlin is Dr. James E. Harrison, who arrived Wednesday to assume the office and practice of Dr. William S. Seals, who is moving to Orange.

Harrison is a graduate of the Baylor School of Dentistry at Dallas. His home has been at Pecuah.

The new dentist is married and he and his wife have three girls, twins, Carolyn and Marolyn, who are three, and a baby girl whose name was not ascertained. They have purchased the former George T. Campbell home on Northwest Avenue H, and will move to the city this week-end. It probably will be several days before Dr. Harrison formally opens for business in the Seals building, fixtures having to be rearranged, he indicated.

Dr. Seals and family were due to move to Orange today (Thursday), where he will be associated with Dr. J. M. Crowley in a new dental clinic.

The Seals, who have resided at Hamlin for more than seven years, have been active in community affairs. He has been president of the Camp Fire Girls Council, Lions Club president, a Boy Scout master and vice president of the Chamber of Commerce. He was a member of the City Council for two terms. The family was active in the Church of Christ. The Seals have two children, Carol Ann, 11, and Henry, eight.

Farmer's Tax Guide May Help Save on Income Tax Payment

It has been a long, hot summer, and there are probably no "blue northerns" in sight for two or three months yet, reminds Tax Man Sam in a release to The Herald.

When you have moved to town you don't lay by the crops at this time of the year like Pa and Ma did a few years ago. However, if you are still turning the sod for a living you are probably awfully glad to get an opportunity to sit on the front porch for a day now and then instead of riding a tractor in the sun.

Most farmers break out in a cold sweat at the mention of income taxes, but the "Farmer's Tax Guide" that a lot of farmers picked up at the county agent's office last winter has a lot of cold facts for front porch study on a day or two. The "Farmer's Guide" will save farmers some next January.

HAMLIN, TEXAS

Total of $51,259 in social security benefits was paid to some 1,189 persons in Jones County for the month of December, 1957, according to official figures just released by R. R. Tuley Jr., district manager for the Social Security Administration in Abilene.

This represents an increase of some 30 to 35 per cent over comparable figures for December, 1956, he added.

These payments went to retired men and women past retirement age (62 for women, 65 for men), to severely disabled persons past age 50, to wives and dependent husbands of retired persons, to children of retired or deceased parents (either under 18 or disabled since before age 18), to widows, dependent widowers, and dependent parents (if no spouse or child eligible for payment).

Tuley urges all persons past retirement age to contact a representative of the Abilene social security office as soon as possible if they had as much as two or three years of social security credits on their past and present earnings, to avoid possible loss of benefits through a misunderstanding of what is meant by "retirement."

Too, upon the death of anyone holding a social security card, inquiry should be made regarding the possibility of survivor benefits due some members of the family. Delays in making inquiries can result in the loss of some benefits.

The figures for Jones County are further broken down by benefit category in the following table:

Retirement and disability, 605, receiving $32,713; wives and husbands, 266 receiving $7,124; children, 190 receiving $6,106; and widows, widowers and parents 128 receiving $5,316.

Ten Arrested in Raid On Gambling Place

Nine players and the operator of a colored cafe in Northeast Hamlin were arrested for gambling Saturday night about 10:00 o'clock by City Police Chief E. B. (Buddy) Watson and Policeman Jack Pyron.

The cafe operator, Ollie Mae Johnson was taken with the gamblers, four Mexicans and five colored men, before City Judge J. E. Patterson after charges were filed. Mrs. Johnson was assessed a fine of $110.70. Four of the players were fined $11.70, four were fined $15.70 and one was fined $30.70.

The vaccine prevents polio

DOT TO BE OUT OF BUSINESS—Governor Price Daniel at a press conference in Austin told newsmen that Texas' conservative Democrats were working with a big bloc of "strong loyalists" to put the DOT out of business. He said the new anti-DOT coalition would muster 3,935 votes at the San Antonio convention to only 853 votes for the DOT faction.

Following Through with Vaccination Urged as Polio Still Threatens Many

Many people in the Hamlin territory have not taken advantage of opportunities to take Salk vaccine inoculations, declare health authorities.

Before the advent of the Salk polio vaccine, Texans prayed for a release from the ravages of paralytic polio for themselves and for their children.

The picture has changed a great deal since then. With the announcement that Dr. Jonas Salk had developed an effective vaccine for the prevention of polio, parents swarmed to their doctors and clinics to have their children protected.

Since then the incidence of paralytic polio has fallen many fold, and an apathetic state of mind has fallen on many Texans concerning the need for protecting themselves.

Many students have received their shots, resulting in a favorable vaccination picture among school age children. As a result this year and last year has seen the pre-school age children with the highest attack rate of paralytic polio.

Who should be vaccinated? Everyone can benefit from polio vaccine inoculations, since the disease strikes all ages. However, the present goal is to vaccinate the most susceptible groups—from infants to age 40. Especially lax in receiving their shots are children under five and adults over 20.

The vaccine protects only those who have had the inoculations.

No vaccine ever has been 100 per cent effective, however, the Salk vaccine has proven 60 to 90 per cent effective. That is reason enough to get your shots now.

The vaccine is in plentiful supply and inexpensive, so the decision is up to the individual. No one is safe without the protection of the Salk polio vaccine.

George Farrars to Lead Meetings for Foursquare Group

On Tuesday, August 26, Rev. and Mrs. George Farrars will begin a series of special meetings in the Hamlin Foursquare Church, it is announced by the pastor, Rev. John Holland. Services will be conducted nightly at 7:30 o'clock, and will continue through Sunday, September 7.

Rev. Farrars was a successful business man in Hardin, Montana, before he felt the call of the Lord to enter the ministry. He had several appliance and electrical shops, a coin-a-matic laundrette, was a radio announcer and television personality. Having forsaken all of these ventures in the business world to preach, he has been all over the Western United States in evangelistic meetings.

In a specially constructed steel trailer they transport a Baldwin piano, a Baldwin stereophonic organ and marimba which are played by Mrs. Farrar. In the vocal field they sing together, and Rev. Farrars has a beautiful solo voice.

"Having made a deep consecration and financial sacrifice, Rev. and Mrs. Farrar have a deep spiritual ministry which will be a challenge to Hamlin," declares Pastor Holland.

Last county organized in Texas was Loving in 1931.

Record Crowds Attended Baptist Camps at Lueders

Baptist youth camp August 5-8 completed the camp season for District 17 at Lueders Baptist Encampment grounds for 1958. The attendants at various camps included many from the Hamlin section.

Almost every camp had a higher attendance than last year and some of them ran as much as 100 higher than the corresponding 1957 camp.

For instance, 637 campers attended the Junoir Girls' Auxiliary camp this season and attendance last year was 530.

The Sunbeam camp on August 1 numbered 435 boys and girls in 1958 as compared to 329 last year.

Total attendance for 1958 was 2,936, Mrs. N. I. Williams said. Last year's number totaled 2,599.

Mrs. Williams is treasurer of Lueders Baptist Encampment and has been working at the camp for several seasons. Her husband has just completed his first season as business manager. He succeeded Rev. Henry Littleton, who had been serving in that capacity for many years.

Final payment on the new swimming pool at the encampment was made in July through the cooperation of the various churches of District 17. Many of the churches have put the encampment in their budget and others sending special contributions to the encampment program.

Rev. Byron Bryant of Breckenridge, encampment president, expressed appreciation for the fine cooperation, interest and participation throughout the season.

Added Caution Is Urged for Peak of Vacation Period

"Safety is here to stay—see you?"

This question was put to Texans this week by J. O. Musick, general manager of the Texas Safety Association, as he sought public support for the association's current slow-down-and-live campaign.

Musick reminded drivers that 451 persons were killed in Texas traffic crashes during July and August last year, two of the peak vacation months.

"Everyone can give the slow-down-and-live program a boost by simply becoming safety conscious. Most people are familiar with the laws, rules and courtesies of the road, but all too often there is a tendency to forget them—then is when the accident occurs," Musick said.

He reminded motorists that the Texas Department of Public Safety and other traffic officials are doing all they can in Texas to protect summer travelers by maintaining a firm enforcement policy.

"Highways are loaded with people who want to 'get away from it all,' and if they are not careful they won't live to get back from it all," the safety expert said. "Every driver must appreciate the fact that accidents don't always happen to the 'other guy.' If he is to survive in today's volume of traffic.

How to Keep a Free Press FREE

SELDOM does Freedom of the Press disappear in one annihilating blow.

In countries where the Press has been chained, there was first a period when it failed to realize and resist the beginnings of its end—the first encroachments on its freedom. There were powerful interests which wanted certain facts "kept out of the newspapers." There was pressure here and press ure there to have the truth withheld.

Before the Press of any nation succumbs to tyranny, there always has been a period of failure to speak out.

Here in America there is only the limitation of national security—the necessity to protect and preserve confidential military and scientific information—which can be accepted by a Press that is determined to stay free.

America's newspapers have made, and will continue to make, a conscientious effort to protect that security—at the same time keeping the people informed as fully as possible on all matters concerning their welfare. So long as American newspapers pursue that policy fearlessly, our Press, our people and our country shall remain free of tyranny.
